

Video Observation Consent Form

Teacher Name: _____

School Name: _____

This year, [X School Agency] is introducing a new option for classroom observations: Teachers are now able to use self-selected videos of classroom instruction as a replacement for at least one in-person observation. Please know that no one is required to use video, so we are requesting your consent before introducing video to your practice. We believe that this process holds great benefits for you and your students, so please read the following options carefully and contact your supervisor with any questions or concerns.

CONSENT TO HAVE CLASSROOM LESSON(S) VIDEOTAPED: (check one)

- Option 1: Formative permissions only – video to be used for evaluative or individual coaching; not to be shared outside of the observation relationship
- Option 2: Broad or universal-use– can be used by the district to coach other teachers or observers
- Option 3: No permission to videotape or be videotaped
